Hokkaido University Senryu Contest

Theme: Hokkaido University and I

Every day I walk
Hoping to meet a small creature
Joy in every step

「1日に 1度は遭いたい 小動物」

Replication waits,
But the clock runs out too soon,
Child waits at daycare.

「お迎えて 仕掛けられない 追実験」

Meetings all day long
Nine to five, the clock has flown
Where did my day go?

「9時に来て 会議に出たら もう5時か」

Call for Hokkaido University Senryu Contest Entries

Entries are now open for the Senryu Contest under the theme of "Hokkaido University and I." Create a senryu about what you like about Hokudai or your thoughts and feelings at Hokudai.

It can be anything from what you discovered at Hokudai that you wish to share to even a little daily annoyance.

We welcome your entries in the form of very short poetry of three lines.

In March 2025, outstanding entries, including special awards, will be selected and announced on our website.

[Important Reminders]

- Outstanding entries will be announced on our website (URL) at a later date. No individual name or department affiliation will be disclosed. Please note that all copyrights (including the rights stipulated in Articles 27 and 28 of the Copyright Act) and all other rights to the submitted work must be transferred to the organizer upon entry and that you agree not to exercise any moral rights of authors concerning the submitted work.
- Entries deemed inappropriate by the organizer, such as those that defame or slander a third party or damage the reputation or credibility of others, may be voided or have their selections canceled without the entrant's consent.
- Only those affiliated with the University (current faculty, staff, students, and others) may participate in the contest.
- Submitted works may be used in promotional activities for the University.
- The contest details are available on the Integrated URA Office and the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion websites.
- The contest may be canceled due to unforeseen circumstances.
